Brexit: EU Impact and Future UK-Ireland-EU Relations?

Thursday, 23 May 2019, 8pm, Haus am Dom, Domplatz 3, 60311 Frankfurt am Main Almost 3 years ago, 52% of the UK citizens voted for Brexit. The country is divided to date. The UK-EU-negotiations are still on-going.

What were the root causes for Brexit? What are the options for the future UK-Ireland-EU relations? Will the UK participate in the European elections? How to solve the border issue with Ireland? What are the lessons learnt?

Political talk between:

Robbie Bulloch

Deputy British Ambassador in Germany

Sven Simon

Professor for European and International law. CDU top candidate in Hessen for the European Elections

Maeve von Heynitz

Deputy Ambassador to Germany, Embassy of Ireland

Chaired by: Birgit Weckler, Deputy Chair of CDU Westend
